GOV. EASLEY REAPPOINTS VICK TO SEDIMENTATION CONTROL COMMISSION

Raleigh - Gov. Mike Easley has reappointed Ricky Vick of Stantonsburg to the North Carolina Sedimentation Control Commission.

Vick is vice president of the S.T. Wooten Corporation in Wilson. He is a registered professional engineer and member of the Carolinas Associated General Contractors and the Minority Contractors Expansion Council. Vick received his Bachelor's degree in civil engineering from N.C. State University.

The commission adopts administrative rules relative to the Sedimentation Pollution Control Act (SPCA) of 1973. It also approves and oversees local ordinances and Department of Transportation delegation on sediment control, provides general oversight of the division's implementation of the SPCA regulations and is active in public education programs. The commission has 12 members, each serving a three-year term. The governor appoints all members.
